

Business consultant Valerie Carter has a process for every problem

The CEO headlines the Women Who Boss Up book tour, shares how she combines empathy, operational excellence, & honesty to help physicians thrive in their practice

HOUSTON, TEXAS, USA, March 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- When Valerie Carter first entered Corporate America, through the doors of an insurance company, she saw problems. Problems that, in her eyes, had simple operational fixes. It amazed her that a company would just add staff rather than fix these problems at their obvious root. Now, with 36 years of health administration under her belt, Valerie lives and breathes problem-solving, as she was born to do. And she's doing it on her own terms, as CEO of VK Consultant Group.

The poster features a woman with long dark hair wearing a purple top, smiling. The background is a warm orange-red gradient with bokeh light effects. Text on the poster includes: 'WOMEN WHO BossUp' in a mix of fonts, 'BOOK TOUR & CONFERENCE' in large bold letters, 'NETWORK, CONNECT, COLLABORATE, BOSSUP', 'Will Be Held On', 'Thursday Mar 31, 2022 at 5:00 PM', 'Houston, Texas 2799 Katy Freeway, Suite 250, Houston, TX 77007', 'With VALERIE CARTER Panelist', and logos for 'Register Women Who BossUp Book Tour - Houston', 'THE FRANCHISE PROS', 'Your Change Provider, PLLC', 'VK CONSULTANT GROUP LLC', and 'Talk to Nicole'.

Valerie Carter

Following in the footsteps of two parents who were also entrepreneurs, Valerie launched her consultancy 19 years ago, combining expertise in healthcare administration strategies with a talent for building trust and relationships with clients. These clients may be physicians just starting out or those with established practices—including hospitals, labs, and many other organizations—who have come up against financial or operational challenges they can't figure out on their own. VK Consultant Group performs a complete assessment and then creates a clear roadmap for them to follow.

I will keep pursuing my dreams until they manifest into my reality.”

Valerie also shares her love and wisdom on a radio show, The Love and Victory Show with Val, encouraging listeners to focus on their mental health and recognize that they are not alone in their life struggles. As an African American woman in business, a wife, a mother, and a grandmother, she is a role model for other women trying to balance responsibilities and challenges while also wanting to be their own boss, share their special talent, and take the entrepreneurial leap. "What was key for me early on is that there was no job that was too small or beneath me. One of the most important things is to do it all," Valerie advises. "Learn absolutely everything."

When you take the training and the skills you get at every job, you might well end up like Valerie—an entrepreneur with broad expertise that no one can match.
