IMPACT OF COVID-19 ON RIDE-ON TROWEL MARKET

The outbreak of COVID-19 has significantly impacted various industries including the manufacturing and construction industries. Containment measures were imposed by governments across the globe such as trade restrictions and factor shutdowns followed by limited personnel at workplaces in order to adhere to the norms of social distancing. Thus, the imposition of such measures has disrupted the supply chain of the manufacturing and construction industry in 2020. However, the industry started to stabilize from Q4 of 2020 as economies started to reopen and containment measures were relaxed.
