This award acknowledges a single individual who has exhibited leadership and outstanding service in marketing activities for the Association. Awards were presented by the previous year's winners, who recognized recipients for their many efforts toward progressing the work of the Association and the industry overall.

"Neill continues to be a strong advocate for not only the Skylight/Sloped Glazing Council, but for FGIA as a whole," said Troiano. "His input is always professional, rational and well thought-out. He regularly offers constructive comments in areas beyond just sloped glazing, which indicates a genuine desire to do what's best for our customers and the industry at large."

Digert's involvement with FGIA includes his role as Chair of the Skylight/Sloped Glazing Codes and Regulatory Affairs Committee as well as being Second Vice President of the Skylight/Sloped Glazing Council.
