

1st Annual Saperavi Festival to take place in the Finger Lakes region of New York

Saperica, Inc., Dr. Konstantin Frank Winery and chama mama restaurant from NYC present the 1st annual Saperavi Festival on Saturday, May 14, 2022.

HAMMONDSPORT, NEW YORK, USA, March 30, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Saperica, Inc., is pleased to announce that the 1st annual Saperavi Festival will take place at Dr. Konstantin Frank Winery in Hammondsport, New York on Saturday, May 14, 2022. The festival will bring together producers of Saperavi and Rkatsiteli wines from the Finger Lakes region of New York along with their counterparts from the country of Georgia. Authentic Georgian cuisine with a modern twist will be featured from New York City restaurant, chama mama.

Saperavi Festival attendees will have the opportunity to taste a wide variety of wines crafted from Saperavi and Rkatsiteli grape varieties native to the country of Georgia. These tastes will be paired with Georgian food specialties like Khachapuri, Lobiani, Khinkali, Pkhali and a special dish, Duck Kalia. Cooking demonstrations will be presented throughout the afternoon.

The Saperavi Festival will take place on Saturday, May 14, 2022 from 2pm to 5pm, on the grounds of Dr Konstantin Frank Winery located at 9683 Middle Rd, Hammondsport, NY 14840. More details and tickets are available for purchase via Eventbrite. The event can be found on Eventbrite by using the search words "saperavi festival".

Members of the trade and media are invited to participate in educational seminars and events which will occur prior to the festival from 11am to 1pm. For more information about attending as a member of trade or media, please contact the organizers at saperavi@saperica.org.

The 1st annual Saperavi Festival is organized by Saperica Inc, a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation, featuring chama mama restaurant from New York City and hosted by Dr. Konstantin Frank
