scissors and making them a little more interesting, transforming it into literary art. A unique book for art lovers and readers; not just for your mind but for your eyes as well.

"This is one of my favorite forms of art as of recent. There is something incredible about artwork that combines visual intrigue with the written word that truly speaks to me. I loved going through everything that the artist put into this collection and found some interesting ideas presented. I look forward to seeing more work in the future as the artist develops and uses her talents to share her thoughts on the world." — Amazon Customer Review.
