

Signal Intelligence Market 2021 Value with Status and Global Analysis – Boeing Company, BAE Systems, Lockheed Martin

The increasing number of security breaches in defense agencies and extensive rise in investment in the defense & foreign intelligence are the major factors

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA, March 31, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Global Signal Intelligence (SIGINT) Market is forecasted to be worth USD 18.28 billion by 2027, according to a current analysis by Emergen Research. The key factors influencing the market include increasing usage of geospatial intelligence, rising cybercrimes involving the data breaches from the confidential governing bodies, rising threats & tensions in asymmetric warfare, and growing investment in the defense bodies & foreign intelligence platforms, among others.

Besides, extensive emphasis on the common operating picture (COP) of the military operations, and higher capabilities of information dominance, battlefield awareness, and decision advantages of the command and control systems are the crucial reasons behind the enormous growth of this market. Also higher usage of space-based command and control infrastructure and smart city command center applications are expected to fuel the market growth.
