

Kayla Andrade of Ontario Landlords Watch joins Tenantcube as an Ambassador

Kayla Andrade, the President of Ontario Landlords Watch joined Tenantcube recently as an Ambassador.

ST. CATHARINES, ONTARIO, CANADA, March 31, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tenantcube, the online property management platform for landlords, recently welcomed Kayla Andrade as its new ambassador. Ms. Andrade is the President of Ontario Landlords Watch, a grassroots advocacy organisation offering supportive services involving the rental industry, and brings over 20 years of experience with her.

Apart from the popular Ontario Landlords Watch, Ms. Andrade is also a landlord, advocate, consultant, and an ambassador for Landlord Credit Bureau and FrontLobby. She has a long track record of successfully guiding landlords through the many issues and policies in the rental housing market.

“Kayla has a skill set and a wisdom born of experience that is almost unparalleled in Ontario’s rental industry. Her dedication to property management is admirable, as she always makes sure landlords get maximum value out of their real estate investments,” said Tenantcube CEO Andrews Moses. “With her extensive connections and strategic acumen, we believe that Kayla will help position ourselves as the No.1 platform for landlords in North America.”

Ms. Andrade is a fierce advocate not only for the rights of landlords, but also for the plight of heavily-burdened tenants. Her vision aligns perfectly with that of Tenantcube, who are on a mission to empower landlords to manage their properties themselves, without depending on expensive property managers. Ms. Andrade’s role at Tenantcube will be to increase brand awareness by engaging with the community, and share product ideas with the team based on her substantial knowledge of the housing market.
