Keepin' It Country Farm 2022 Season lineup of Stars for Love Tattoo Foundation Benefit Concerts

Fri, June 3 Jeff Bates
Jeff has performed in all 50 states, 5 countries, and 4 continents. Besides recording country songs, he recorded an inspirational country album entitled "One Day Closer" and the title track from that album put Bates at #1 on the Christian Country Charts. He has quite a life story which he touches on in the intro to his 2009 video on YouTube, "Jeff Bates - One Second Chance (Official Video)". Welcome to Keepin' It Country Farm, Jeff.

Sat, July 16 The Malpass Brothers
Chris and Taylor toured with the great Merle Haggard, and have shared the stage with the top names in TRUE country music. You may have seen them on RFD-TV's "Larry's Country Diner" or "Country's Family Reunion". They are country from the top of their hair-do's down to their western boots! Great singers and entertainers!

Sat, Aug. 20 Paul Overstreet
A singer and songwriter, Paul has charted 16 of his singles on Billboard and had two #1 hits. He has also written #1 hits for several big-name country artists. (That list of songs is too long to include here ... but you will be amazed!) He was named BMI Songwriter of the Year 5 years in a row ... something never done before or since.

Sat, Sept. 24 Jimmy Fortune
You'll remember Jimmy as the tenor singer for the Statler Brothers for many years. He wrote several #1 songs for them as well. In 2020, Jimmy Fortune, Bradley Walker, Mike Rogers and Ben Isaacs recorded the CD "Brotherly Love" - superb harmony from these country, bluegrass and gospel artists and great song selections! Jimmy still writes, records and produces projects in Nashville.

Sat, Oct. 8 Penny Gilley & special guest Bonnie Riley
Back by popular demand! Penny and Bonnie have graced our stage before and are real crowd-pleasers. We are in for another good night of pure country music with Penny singing traditional country hits, Bonnie accompanying her on the fiddle and backed up by the Richard Lynch Band.

ABOUT LOVE TATTOO FOUNDATION: The Love Tattoo Foundation is a non-profit organization that honors and assists the American Veterans who carry mental or physical scars, from serving their country. Its mission is to raise money and awareness to help give these Veterans the opportunities they sacrificed, so others could have theirs.

The Love Tattoo Foundation was born as the positive outcome from a truly devastating event. Law Enforcement Officer, Charles "Chuck" Brisbin, was moved by a story he had heard of a young man who left for Afghanistan as a soldier for his country and came back disfigured. Being involved closely with our country's military, Chuck was compelled to honor this man in any way he could, to show his humble gratitude. So he turned to poetry. Chuck wrote a beautiful poem titled Love Tattoo. After he finished the poem, he wanted to take it a step further by finding a voice that would be the spirit of his message; not only for this man, but for every man and woman who've sacrificed everything for what others have. Without hesitation, he turned to country music artist, Richard Lynch. Richard has a passion and respect for our military that is not to be taken lightly. He was humbled and honored to be asked to turn this poem into a song. Since then, Richard's adaptation of the poem has literally brought veterans of all ages and walks of life to tears on the spot. From this, a greater cause was revealed. There are folks ranging from 18 to 81 years old that will carry mental and physical scars with them for the rest of their lives, because they fought for our citizens' freedoms. The most shocking fact of this is that there is no organization designated specifically to these folks and their needs. It came to our attention that these men and women almost feel ostracized; they feel like damaged goods. With very little discussion, it was decided that The Love Tattoo Foundation would take a stand and help these amazing people. They should be lifted up and honored, not put away on a dusty shelf.
