

Browning Associates Reviews: Better Business Bureau says they are A++ With Them

Browning Associates - Helping executives crystalize their career aspirations and realize new career heights by way of reaching their next career summit.

COVENTRY, RHODE ISLAND, UNITED STATES, April 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Browning

We are proud of our staff and thank God for enabling us to be faithful in His divine wisdom."

John Seraichyk -

Associates (BA) is excited to share news about its success in helping executives crystalize their career aspirations and realize new career heights by way of reaching their next career summit.

According to John Seraichyk - Founder of Browning Associates, we have consistently celebrated our clients who engage our firm and are serious about wholly employing our proven action plan for success.

Even in the face of the pandemic, our clients have experienced unprecedented success. Throughout all of 2021 and 2022 we've experienced record-breaking success and, therefore, consider this a significant accomplishment for our firm, says Seraichyk.

Seraichyk says much of our success stems from arming our clients with interview and self-presentation tactics developed over 20 years exclusively for high-level executives vying for C and board-level roles. Your standard elevator pitch and the ability to communicate strengths while downplaying weaknesses isn't enough to land at high six, low seven figures, says Eugene Seguin, VP, Verbal Jiu Jitsu. Accordingly, one Such CEO, Peter McGrath, says Browning Associates was my thought partner, scribe, confidante, mentor, sparring partner, and most importantly, friend this past year as I worked to pivot my business and reposition myself in the face of the Pandemic. Browning Associates helped me articulate my professional services offerings, my value proposition, if you will, that allowed me to confidently position myself at the appropriate level for international projects that broadened my horizons and ultimately helped me find the perfect role and project for my profile and talent skill set took some time to craft. Still, the Browning team persisted and supported my cause with steadfast commitment, and the result was precisely what I was looking for.

Seraichyk said, many clients like Peter, hired in the previous months and years, continue to partner with Browning Associates as active executive network advocates, thus fortifying our organizational network exponentially.
