

Citrus County auction professional earns industry's top designation

Chris Dudley recently completed the National Auctioneers Association's prestigious three-year CAI program

OCALA, FL, USA, April 5, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Citrus County auction professional Chris Dudley, of Tranzon Driggers, recently completed her training at the prestigious Certified Auctioneers Institute (CAI). Developed by the National Auctioneers Association (NAA), the CAI program is the industry's premier training program for auction professionals.

Dudley joins an exclusive group as there are approximately 707 current CAI designation holders in the world as of March 2022.

Chris Dudley

The three-year designation is an intensive, executive development program offering professional auctioneers instruction and coursework in business management, ethics, communication, finance, data protection, strategic planning, and marketing.

The NAA conducts CAI every year in March at Indiana University in Bloomington, IN. CAI candidates join auction professionals from across the world to learn from some of the nation's most distinguished and respected industry leaders.

Chris is a licensed auctioneer and real estate broker associate in Florida, and has been working in the real estate industry for more than 30 years. She was inducted into the Florida Auctioneers Association's Hall of Fame (Lewis C. Dell Award) in 2018. Chris also holds the AARE (Accredited Auctioneer Real Estate) and GPPA (Graduate Personal Property Appraiser) designations with the National Auctioneers Association. Ms. Dudley has an especially strong background of working with estates. She focuses on serving estate and private sellers by developing strategies to expeditiously sell their properties through the auction process.
