Today, it's not just dispensaries or delivery services that sell the actual cannabis. Many related goods offer deals during 420 - From grow lights to electric dab rigs such as the uber-popular Puffco Peak Pro is offered at The Cloud Vapor Store.

Browne further added “ It is funny to think about how the original 420 meet-ups were very hush-hush and the stigma surrounding cannabis was very prevalent. Whereas now it has become a celebration and even a commercial holiday that brings us more customers than any other time of the year”

To celebrate alongside the community, To the Cloud Vapor Store offers some of the largest discounts of the year on their dry herb and concentrate vaporizers as well as community giveaways and sponsoring local meet-ups.

“We definitely feel a lot more a part of 420 than we do say Christmas or any other holiday where we run huge vaporizer sales. 420 is more directly related to our market and who we are as a company” stated Browne.
