“Our delicious, hand-wrapped burritos are truly a staple at Barberitos, so National Burrito Day is an important time for our team and our guests,” Founder and CEO Downing Barber said. “In addition to our burritos made in-store daily, we are thrilled to bring the fan-favorite mango salsa back to our menu for guests to enjoy all spring and summer long.”

Barberitos uses fresh, hand-cut mangoes, pico de gallo, cilantro, peppers, jalapenos, fresh lime juice and sea salt to make the seasonal salsa. The zesty, tangy mango salsa along with the restaurant's traditional tomato-based salsas are made fresh daily.

As a southwestern grille and cantina, Barberitos is dedicated to serving farm-fresh, high-quality food in an efficient manner. All of the restaurants' menu items are made in-house daily, including hand-smashed guacamole, homemade salsas, fresh-cut vegetables, as well as chicken, pork, steak, turkey, tofu, rice and beans.
