/EINPresswire.com/ -- Have you ever felt like the world has let you down? Life will throw you a million reasons to give up on your dreams, but whenever you wake up each day and all you can think about is the dream that is hidden deep inside you, then. Reading this well-penned book might be the beginning of a journey towards self-love and self-acceptance.

Sabella knew in her heart and mind that she wanted to be a writer, to share her story with the world, she had all the reasons to give up, but she kept on believing and visualizing herself where she wanted to be. Don't give up and never let anyone tell you you're not good enough and you can't make it, because once you believe, you will achieve."
