Civil Rights: All Men Are Created Equal

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, April 6, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Behind the passage of the laws, 1964 Civil Rights Act and 1965 Voting Rights Act are the people who joined the Selma Movement led by Martin Luther King Jr., who is an American civil rights movement for 13 years through the philosophy and practice of non-violent protest until his murder in 1968. Furthermore, students also joined the movement named, Selma Student Nonviolent Movement which is established by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) which is the fact-based autobiography book of Charles Bonner titled, Tip of the Arrow: The Selma Student Nonviolent Movement, A Study In Leadership.

The book is based on the true story of the author, as he joined and witnessed the Civil Rights movement and recorded the accounts and encounters of the people who risked their lives just to attain equal rights. He became a field director for SNCC's Voter Registration Project in Wilcox County in 1965, conducting voter education and voter registration drives. He was one of the hundreds who were beaten on Sunday, March 7, 1965, by Alabama State troopers, rushing the marchers on horseback, and on foot, wielding whips, nightsticks, and tear gas on the Edmund Pettus Bridge during the "Bloody Sunday" Selma to Montgomery March for the right to vote. It is an instrumental resource for
