I wonder what Paul would think. He'll probably encourage her to go. Father and daughter are like birds of a feather, she thought, then turned back to her kitchen work.”

Excerpt from DESPERATE SEARCH by Barbara W. Teal

“In this novel, there is even more tragedy tearing at the heart of a distraught mother determined to save her daughter as they eventually race for their lives across the Sahara Desert...Teal also saves a big surprise for the end of her tale. It is one that readers are quite unlikely to see coming. This novel is an engaging story about an important subject told engagingly.”
