So what are the highlights of this latest expansion in the Pokemon universe? Sword & Shield – Astral Radiance will stretch into the reaches of the Hisui region to bring forth a range of Hisuiian Pokemon. But that's only a glimpse of what's to follow. Astral Radiance, as the name suggests, will also introduce Radiant Pokemon – a type of shiny Pokemon that comes with the ability to attack and impact the Pokemon TCG metagame. Astral Radiance will give you the continued kick of Pokemon VSTAR along with a 30 card special Trainer gallery comprising the most preferred Trainers and Pokemon. It doesn't need a whole lot of guessing to figure this new expansion will be a sell-out, so placing a pre-order well ahead of Astral Radiance's official release would be a smart idea.

The Pokemon Astral Radiance Booster Box will include 36 Pokémon TCG: Sword & Shield—Astral Radiance booster packs and each booster pack will comprise 10 cards and either 1 basic Energy or 1 VSTAR marker.
