Who is Manna - At Manna Wealth Management, balancing a busy life with the financial demands of saving for retirement or saving for college is no easy task. Manna Wealth Management understands that every decision one makes about spending, saving, and giving back to the family and to the community is complicated.

That’s why Manna is here.

Manna takes into account what’s important and helps guide planning decisions so they align with what one values most. Connecting one's financial goals with what matters to create a solid foundation for success—a foundation strengthened with every choice one makes. Manna will be there along with the way.

Both optimists and pessimists contribute to our society. The optimist invents the airplane and the pessimist the parachute.”

Gil Stern

Manna believes it's important to consider the many aspects of one's financial life. That encompasses one's decisions about what to spend, what to save, what to invest, and what to give back.

Those beliefs are the foundation of Manna Wealth Management and it's what makes financial planners and financial advisers so unique.

In a world where choices abound, spending is easy, and saving is vital, Manna Wealth Management is for those who seek to make what matters most to them the driver for the financial decisions they make today, tomorrow, and for the future.
