Highly popular on Social Media, just think that she has more than half a million followers on Instagram. A real celebrity in India and the United States. We met her during the interview and were impressed by her intelligence, energy, and brilliant creativity. Her great passion is music, and especially, making it, it is no coincidence that she defines herself as a singer and songwriter.

It will certainly please Sakshi's followers that she is working on her new album. The celebrity Indian influencer is collaborating with well-known celebrity musicians in the Los Angeles Studios. This is a top-secret production but will be launched very soon. This album comes right after Sakshi's lead on Social Currency which will be released in 2022 on Netflix. She is an in-demand performer who previously was offered a role on the Big Boss 14 broadcast in India. Sakshi is the biggest Indian star who is taking the US entertainment industry by storm.
