LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK, April 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The rise in awareness for hygiene contributed to the household type vacuum cleaners market growth in the forecast period. There has been an increase in pathogens and infectious diseases. This has led to an increasing awareness on the importance of maintaining hygiene in care, nursing and residential areas, which in turn has driven the market for household vacuum cleaners. According to a poll conducted by Hygiene Company SCA in the UK, 47% of people spend more than five hours a week on domestic cleaning tasks. According to the household type vacuum cleaners market research, increase in awareness for hygiene coupled with the rise in disposable income is driving the market for household vacuum cleaners.

Household type vacuum cleaners market report shows that the manufacturers are increasingly producing energy-efficient products to reduce carbon footprint and enable energy savings for the consumers. The rise of energy-efficient appliances can be attributed to the stringent government regulations on electric home appliances and advances in technology. Energy efficient vacuum cleaners are designed to utilize minimum energy to complete the required task. Currently, over 80 countries have standards and labels for energy efficient appliances. For example, European Commission- 'Eco design requirements for Vacuum Cleaners' contains eco-design requirements for several types of vacuum cleaners.
