NDVSB eMarketplace is all-inclusive, “one size does not fit all” technology platform that aligns suppliers with corporate buyers. Through a partnership with the National Minority Supplier Development Council (NMSDC), ePS-NDVSB makes the eMarketplace available at no cost to all NMSDC corporate members. “This value provides access to our corporate buying organizations who want to increase diversity spend for their supplier diversity programs with MBEs,” said Icy Williams, Director of MBE Services at NMSDC.

With its NMSDC and “Corporate Plus” certifications, V3GO gained access to the NDVSB eMarketplace and NMSDC’s 1500 corporate members. V3GO will also be included in the NDVSB /

AAFES Federal eMarketplace, which is available to all federal agencies for their first stop when purchasing products or services.

Part of the federal program includes the Air Force First Look initiative, which ePS-NDVSB is currently rolling out to all Air Force bases. The First Look program makes it easier for installation government purchase card-holders to do business within the communities surrounding Air Force bases, as well as with state and national suppliers.

With the First Look Program, the Air Force aims “to support our local communities and the jobs right outside our gates before we look elsewhere,” said Major Gen. Cameron Holt, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics. The Air Force plans to bring $1.8 billion back to local communities around installations through the First Look initiative.

That’s not all the NDVSB has been up to lately, though. In January, ePS-NDVSB announced the launch of a private, stand-alone Supplier Diversity eMarketplace for Greylock Federal Credit Union in Massachusetts. The new eMarketplace provides another avenue for Greylock to increase supplier relationships with minority-, women-, and veteran-owned as well as local, small businesses. It’s another in a long string of initiatives that the NDVSB has put into place to support diverse businesses and communities.

“V3GO is committed to promoting supplier diversity and is honored to have been a certified MBE since 2020 and a NMSDC CorporatePlus members since 2021,” said Vice President and General Manager, Tim Burgett. “The NDVSB eMarketplace gives businesses like ours additional resources to achieve our mission to support the government and commercial enterprise.”
