

Helix Wireless selects Galaxy Ventures for Crypto

NEW JERSEY, USA, April 13, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- We are delighted to announce that Helix Wireless, an innovative, global IoT and telecommunications company has partnered with Galaxy Ventures to accept and manage cryptocurrency payments.

“With this agreement Helix continues to be a market leader leveraging our wireless technology and offering additional payment options. Helix focuses on remaining simple and frictionless for our customers. Galaxy Ventures was the obvious choice based on their agile thinking, development capability, and superior knowledge in the space.” said Francis Gallic, COO of Helix Wireless.

Galaxy Ventures, based in Sheridan, Wyoming will integrate the necessary platforms to make cryptocurrency payments available for both hardware and services. Helix Wireless consumer and business clients will soon make instant payments with Bitcoin (BTC), Ethereum (ETH), Litecoin (LTC), Dogecoin (DOGE) and other popular cryptocurrencies.

“We are very excited by the opportunity to work with Helix. Their reach has gone global with their deployment of SmartSIM™ technology, and we believe by partnering with them we have a solution that will bring benefits to us both” said Aidan Ireland of Galaxy Ventures.

Helix Wireless continues to lead, by focusing on innovative solutions, connecting everything, everywhere with their SmartSIM™ and simplifying global commerce payment transactions with this new partnership.
