SIGNAL HILL, CA, UNITED STATES, April 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Monday Motorbikes, a leader in the eBike industry, is unveiling its latest program with the MotoGP inspired “Anza GP”. The new Anza GP includes a 750W motor, an aerodynamic fairing with a 7” headlight, drop handlebars, bar end mirrors, motorcycle tires and tuned software to deliver the modern eBike Café Racer.

“The Anza GP delivers classic Café Racer performance and styling in an environmentally efficient package. The new Anza GP is a fully modern Class 3 eBike with abundant torque and speed for cross-campus riders and cross-town commuters”, states Monday Motorbikes CEO, Bruce Riggs.

Founded in 1949, MotoGP created the first championship circuit in Europe for light-weight motorcycles. Now expanded globally, Monday Motorbikes honors our Moto GP and Café Racer heritage with an eBike technology expansion of the category. Announced concurrently with the MotoGP event at Circuit of the Americas in Austin, the Anza GP is available first through our dealership partnership with Urban Moto in Austin, TX.

Many Monday Motorbikes dealers agree that motorbike styling turns heads and create new opportunities to bring the joy of two wheels to the masses outside the standard bicycle audience. “As owners of Urban Moto, we have embraced the Anza GP’s Café Racer performance and reduced carbon footprint. Urban Moto has been a leader in bringing environmentally efficient transportation to Austin’s trails, bike lanes and urban commuters. We welcome Monday
