"2022 will be a year of remarkable change in our industry, and we bring a unique perspective to help owners, investors and operators come out ahead and well prepared for the future," said David Schneider, Co-Founder and Managing Director.

Navigating the Shifting Market

Schneider, a deeply experienced CEO of mortgage companies including CitiMortgage, Washington Mutual and Stearns Lending, is partnering with Steve Stein, an accomplished production leader who has served as Production Head at companies including CitiMortgage, GMAC, Washington Mutual and Stearns. Their advisory practice will focus on helping companies grow through improved efficiencies, building new partnerships, and guiding investors through the complex transactional process of growing or extracting equity from their firms.

Focused on Clients' Returns

Stein said "David and I have a long history of working together and facing the kinds of issues that mortgage executives and investors are dealing with today. We want to share our experience in taking the necessary actions to help companies expand their franchise, improve their operating platform, or monetize their investment. Our goal is to be a valuable partner to ensure we help our clients arrive at the right decision with the best outcome.”
