

New Paranormal Movie: Monsters, Myths and Mysteries, Explores UFO Sightings, Ghosts and Other Unexplained Phenomenon

The Godfather of Bigfoot, Tom Biscardi, announces a new paranormal investigation movie; Monsters, Myths and Mysteries exploring UFO sightings, ghosts and more.

REDWOOD CITY, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 12, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With a career spanning more than 50 years, famed Bigfoot hunter Tom Biscardi is, for the first time, expanding his reach beyond the Sasquatch monster. Biscardi's new investigations, covering unexplained phenomenon, the paranormal, UFOs, lost treasures, and unknown beasts will be documented in the new film series, Monsters, Myths and Mysteries.

"I have had the great pleasure of not only a half a century of investigations and hunts, but also real encounters with Bigfoot," says Biscardi.

"The lessons learned through those experiences, along with a proven track record of research that can only be developed through time in the field, are now being put to use on a whole new range of topics that continue to entice and amaze people around the world."

Biscardi's six-part Monsters, Myths and Mysteries takes viewers across five Southwestern states which have been home to many bizarre and frightening legends and sightings for centuries.

The first film in the series begins with a look at mysterious beings, mythical creatures and unexplained happenings, each which will be covered in depth individually in a following production. Biscardi will be taking viewers along to explore and investigate the Red-Haired Giants of Lovelock Cave, cryptids at the White Mountain Apache and Navajo reservations,
