

PLUSnxt Expands RelativityOne Offering in Canada

The SaaS cloud-based eDiscovery solution provides more value, scalability and convenience for PLUSnxt's Canadian clients.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, April 12, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PLUSnxt, leading Electronic Discovery Services and Solutions Provider, today announced it is expanding its global eDiscovery service by offering RelativityOne to the Canadian market.

A RelativityOne Silver Partner since 2020, PLUSnxt will provide the flexible and extendable cloud platform to their clients in Canada, providing an intuitive user experience backed by the power of automation and integrated artificial intelligence.

We're excited to provide clients with a local RelativityOne instance that incorporates our custom applications and workflows to better serve the growing Canadian legal services market.”

Gary Bendel, President & COO

In addition to standard transactional support, PLUSnxt will provide Canadian clients with the recently unveiled Accelerator program, developed to foster independent eDiscovery with the guided help of PLUSnxt experts. PLUS Accelerator offers a dedicated RelativityOne environment without the typical entry barriers of data minimums, long-term contracts and costly subscriptions, and enables clients to capitalize on PLUSnxt's proven workflows and best practices.

This geographic expansion enables PLUSnxt to assist their Canadian clients with all their eDiscovery needs, regardless of location. As a RelativityOne focused company offering services in Canada, PLUSnxt can ensure clients' data stays in Canada providing ease of use and meeting any possible legal jurisdiction requirements for data that must remain in Canada. The dedicated RelativityOne instance provides the scalability clients need in today's data-centric world and enables them to build expertise and intelligence on one cloud-connected global solution. RelativityOne also gives

PLUSnxt Expands Offerings in Canada

PLUSnxt's users in Canada the flexibility to pick and choose solutions from the Relativity App Hub that best suits their unique workflows across different stages of the Electronic Discovery Reference Model —and solve data challenges outside of eDiscovery.

"We're excited to provide clients with a local RelativityOne instance that incorporates our custom applications and workflows to better serve the growing Canadian legal services market," commented Gary Bendel, COO and president of PLUSnxt. "Our expansion into Canada is one of many steps to identify and offer the best solutions for our clients as we continue our global expansion."

"It's been wonderful to see PLUSnxt develop their partnership with Relativity over the last two years. Adding a Canadian RelativityOne instance to their offerings not only strengthens their position in the regional market, but also shows how committed they are to providing the best eDiscovery technology for their customers around the world," said James Zinn, Director of Commercial Partnerships at Relativity. "I look forward to PLUSnxt's continued success with RelativityOne and watching this partnership evolve on a global level."
