

INTERalliance Recognizes Outstanding Schools during Chapter Banquet

INTERalliance of Greater Cincinnati awards schools across the region for their innovative ideas throughout the school year.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, UNITED STATES, May 6, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In celebration of the achievements of its member schools, the INTERalliance of Greater Cincinnati has released its list of Chapter Winners for the 2021 - 2022 school year.

INTERalliance is proud to announce the 2021 - 2022 Chapter Winners! Hosted by the INTERalliance, Chapter Competitions bring together schools from across the region to compete in various IT challenges. Past contests have included everything from pitching an IT product to designing logos and building websites. Student winners receive cash prizes to improve and fund their school's Chapter as a reward for their innovation and effort. Beyond prizes for winning each Competition, INTERalliance recognizes schools for their participation throughout the year.

INTERalliance Chapter Honorees: Chapters can be named Honorees if they have attended at least 75% of the INTERalliance Chapter Events.

Walnut Hills High School, Elder High School, Loveland High School, St. Henry District High School, West Clermont High School

The Most Participating Chapter: This award recognizes the Chapter(s) with the largest number of Chapter Competition participants.

Walnut Hills High School, Elder High School
