

GF Hotels & Resorts Launches GF CAP, An Industry-Leading Hospitality Mentorship Program

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, April 13, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GF Hotels & Resorts, a leading hotel ownership and management company with more than 140 upscale and midscale U.S. hotels and resorts in its portfolio, recently announced the launch of its hospitality mentorship program.

"The Great Resignation was really about creating retention, and therefore, investing in our people is the most important thing we can do. We've realized that we can't just find leaders; we need to create leaders," stated John Rubino, President and COO, Managed Division.

This mentorship program will offer a 12-month leadership development program based on participants' engagement and performance. Designed as a tiered certification program focusing on three levels; Core, Professional, and Expert.

"Offering not only mentoring but support to our future leaders allows us to continue the commitment to bringing the ultimate experience to our guests and event clients," said Ryan Alpert, Senior Vice President, Sales & Revenue Strategy. "This program sets GF Hotels & Resorts apart from its competitors giving our team personal attention to reach their long-term career goals."
