ensured the utmost best when collaborating with MLRE.

Bentley Residences will be built and designed by the unrivaled Sieger Suarez Architects and Dezer Development who collaborated on the design of the Porsche Tower. The collaborators ensure that the plans for the Bentley Residences are in the most trustworthy and capable hands. The magnificent high-rise luxury condo development which will be ready in 2026, will rise to almost 750 feet, house 200 plus apartments, and will overlook the Sunny Isles Beach in Miami. Dezer and Bentley have pulled out all the stops and each residence is planned to come equipped with a remarkable multi-car garage which will funnel through the apartment building's impressive elevator system. Future residents can expect opulent and lavish designs such as indoor-outdoor living with private pools and saunas in each residence and floor-to-ceiling windows which will capture breathtaking views of Miami's north shore and bay. Residents can also expect luxury amenities such as a cinema, cigar lounge, restaurant, and more, as well as tranquil, manicured grounds and gardens. The outside of the high-rise building will reflect Bentley's famous diamond icon. The architectural plan includes triangular windows which will reflect the sun and mirror diamonds. The construction of this spectacular project will begin in 2023 and MLRE looks forward to selling a piece of Bentley heaven to its future owners.
