“Horror fiction shows us that the control we believe we have is purely illusory and that every moment we teeter on chaos and oblivion.”

Clive Barker

“The book is really good. I loved how I could relate to the characters and it felt like I was inside the story right along with them. The story is not dull, there are many scenes I could imagine happening and I would reread because it was so awesome. I like good fiction: Dean Koontz, Stephen King, Sidney Sheldon. I wish this book would become a movie.”— Amazon customer review.

“The book has deep twists and turns to keep a reader reading. If he keeps writing books I will keep reading them!”— Amazon customer review.

Currently residing in Massachusetts, Shellie L. Spencer is an upstate New York native where he owns graphic art and music shops and always had a passion for writing. His new book, Ruins of Faith, is a mesmerizing work of fantasy fiction that keeps the pages turning from the first enthralling paragraph to the last.
