

Active World Club & Amiga Games Partner to Create New Retro Gaming & Metaverse Ecosystem Powered by NFT's

*AWRT to serve as in app currency for all developed games
Including The Secrets of Monkey Island*

PHILADELPHIA, PA, USA, April 14, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Active World Club (AWC) is pleased to announce that it has secured a partnership with Amiga Games, Inc. (AGI) to create a new Metaverse ecosystem based on AGI licensed titles including the popular retro game "The Secrets of Monkey Island". The Secrets of Monkey Island was originally developed by Lucasfilm Games and was the inspiration for the "Pirates of the Caribbean" franchise.

Active World Club's reward token AWRT will be the currency for all in app game purchases including NFT's. Amiga and AWC will pair the retro gaming environment with cutting edge blockchain technology development. NFT sales will power the engine to redevelop these games for mobile, updated PC interfaces and Metaverse roll out.

There are great Gamefi opportunities in the retro gaming space today which provide strong upside for Active World Club and impressive utility for the Club's reward token AWRT. ”

Beau Kelley, COO

AWC Chief of Operations Beau Kelley stated “There are great Gamefi opportunities in the retro gaming space today which provide strong upside for Active World Club and impressive utility for the Club's reward token AWRT. Along with the rollout of the traditional games there is additional upside in NFT drops and Metaverse expansion.”

All in game NFT's will be listed on AWC's proprietary NFT Exchange. All NFT holders will be eligible to be whitelisted for the Metaverse Expansion. The plan is to list all the AGI in game NFT's on AWC's proprietary NFT exchange. Existing Club members and NFT holders will be eligible to be whitelisted on our Metaverse expansion. The in game NFT's can be purchased using AWRT, credit card or other well-known crypto currencies.
