

VacayHome Connect Joins the Effort to Protect Vacation Homes and the Vacation Rental Industry

Serves on Collaborative Committee; Donates to VRMA Advocacy Fund

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, USA, April 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- VacayHome Connect, the leading connectivity and distribution partner for the vacation rental industry, has donated to the VRMA Advocacy Fund, joining the fight to protect the rights of travelers, property owners, and businesses.

The fund provides financial resources to address industry-specific advocacy challenges at the U.S. federal, state, and local levels.

Sunil Aluvia, CEO of VacayHome Connect, commented, "As a leader in the vacation rental industry, we are proud to work with VRMA and other industry influencers in representing property management customers and partners to advance their ability to safely and economically run their businesses and serve travelers. We realize that the need for advocacy resources is growing as the industry rebounds from the pandemic and vacation rentals gain acceptance among mainstream leisure travelers."

Toby Babich, VRMA Collaborative Committee Chair and past VRMA Board President, states, "It is extremely satisfying to have partners such as VacayHome Connect raising the bar of professionalism in the vacation rental industry and investing in the viability of all vacation rental businesses. We look forward to having their active participation on the committee.”

VRMA's 2022 Collaborative Committee priority initiatives include housing affordability studies, economic impact studies, local alliance assistance, and an advocacy toolkit.

Steve Milo, founder and CEO of VTrips, added, "The VRMA Advocacy Fund finances positive vacation rental legislation, supports area-specific economic impact studies, lobbying efforts, housing studies, and national campaigns. The addition of VacayHome Connect to the VRMA Collaborative Committee ensures the ongoing success of this effort."
