

The Los Angeles Times Festival Of Books of 2022 presents, The Rumor Club

A Labyrinth of Plot Twists In The Killing Spree

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, April 15, 2022
/EINPresswire.com/ -- Author Joseph P. Bartko will be one of the featured authors in the upcoming Los Angeles Festival of Books 2022 with his published book titled The Rumor Club

The book is a mystery novel about a perspective of a man who works as a custodial engineer at a morgue where all of the autopsies are performed. Billy Howe previously worked as a district manager for a large department store chain. However, it helped the grief of losing his wife of fifteen years, Mary Schultz. She died of cancer, and Billy learned about autopsy reports, and it eased him. Later, he did not know that his new job would bring in a whole new adventure filled with mystery, suspense, and thrill.

A story of how ordinary people can achieve justice for themselves when thrown into a serious murder situation.

“There really can be no peace without justice. There can be no justice without truth. And there can be no truth unless someone rises to tell you the truth.”—

Louis Farrakhan.

“Bartko was able to preserve the theme of his previous books which has a lot to do with mystery and using average people as characters...He will take us in a labyrinth of plot twists that will certainly entertain and scintillate the senses.”

— Book Review.

Joseph P. Bartko retired after spending fifty years in plastics-related technical companies. While he always worked better alone, he did have many managers who were real professionals.
