ABOUT Soledad House

Soledad House is a long term program for women in San Diego, specializing in transitional care for young adults. We offer intensive outpatient services, outpatient services and extended sober living. Our minimum length of stay is 90 days and there is no maximum with the average length of stay being 6 months. We offer a structured, gender specific program for women that need support reintegrating back to real life. Our curriculum includes not only the 12 step program but a strong clinical component including groups focused on trauma, emotion regulation, mental health and more. We have a spiritual component to our program as well. Our goal is to give women a safe place and a solid amount of time to learn the tools and skills needed to maintain lifelong sobriety.
