More about EIIR: The Platinum Record

Royals journalist, historian and Founder of the British Monarchists Society Thomas Mace-Archer-Mills spearheaded the commission and co-wrote the lyrics.

The two-part classical / world music album was composed by Dr. Olga Thomas-Bosovskaya and Anton Van Der Mere. The Anthem features highly acclaimed soprano Lesley Garrett CBE and baritone Rodney Earl Clarke of the West End's Les Misérables, along with The London Community Gospel Choir.

She is the only Monarch most of us have ever known...Her Majesty's 96th birthday should be celebrated in grand style...this is why such a Jubilee Anthem is being gifted to the Queen on her birthday.”

Thomas Mace-Archer-Mills

The first track on the Jubilee Album, entitled “The Four British Nations,” was composed by Dr. Thomas-Bosovskaya and produced by Robert Emery. Mills arranged the lyrics, consisting of chants and shouts of “Vivat”, “Regina”, and “Elizabetha ” meant to simulate the setting of Her Majesty's Coronation in June 1953.

The second track, entitled “(Your Majesty) We Thank You From Our Hearts,” composed by Van Der Mere, who also co-produced the track with Etienne Lane, has a more world music sound. The song features steel drums of the Caribbean, the Didgeridoo of Australia, Hindi, Maori, and Swahili chants among other regional music flavors that reference the various countries of the British Commonwealth.

On his inspiration for the project, Mills says, “She is the only Monarch most of us have ever known, and this is why Her Majesty's 96th birthday should be celebrated in grand style. We can see plainly that she is now frail and not long for her duties as grandmother to our nations. We want to honour her in life as we will in death, and this is why such a Jubilee Anthem is being gifted to the Queen on her birthday, 21 April."

ElIR: The Platinum Record will be out on BMS Records on April 21, 2022 on all major streaming platforms and on limited edition CDs and Records.
