

New Meme Coin Goodiestboicoin is set to push the boundaries of web3

New Meme Coin Goodiestboicoin based on Binance Blockchain will help push the limits of the web3.

UNITED STATES, April 16, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The soon-to-be-launched Goodiestboicoin is the next meme coin poised to take over. Nothing is off the table for the development team, who have been working for nearly three years to create a coin that can provide community-driven growth while pushing the limits of web 3.

The new coin, token, and crypto projects have proven to be one of the most lucrative opportunities in the world, no longer reserved for the world's already wealthy. Goodiestboicoin ($ham) is bringing to life a community-driven project that will be able to provide Web 3.0 services in ways that previous generations have never seen.

Years ago, no one could comprehend Amazon, Tesla, Bitcoin, or Facebook. As the world evolves and a younger, newer generation takes their place, it has become clear that the old ways are no longer the only option. They will stop at nothing to propel this new era of the internet forward, from art collectibles to online gameplay.

Goodiestboicoin is a cryptocurrency based on the Binance smart contract blockchain that allows for simple and quick transactions and the ability to support full NFT art collections and possibly even gameplay. Goodiestboicoin is poised to become one of the fastest-growing meme coins (dogecoin) (shibainu) with its community-driven potential. Goodiestboicoin ($ham) is developing from the ground up with its homegrown approach to community-driven projects without using an ICO or EXO to artificially inflate the initial price.

"After seeing and studying, we now know that if you ask ten people, at least half of them will say they want to invest in cryptocurrencies. Only a fool would turn down this opportunity. Some coins and projects have seen gains of over 41.309 percent in a single year. We'll wait while you finish your math. The life-changing potential, long-term investment for the masses is now available," Goodiestboicoin's spokesperson stated.
