SuperPowerHeroes™, will include other entertainment related programming including 'behind-the-scenes' featurettes. It will feature the hottest titles from Hulu, Disney+, Amazon Prime, Apple TV +, HBOMax, Paramount +, Peacock + and all major Hollywood studios offered in new themed blocks. Movies and TV shows featuring comic book heroes have a huge fan base worldwide and are consistently generating top box office numbers and TV ratings. SuperPowerHeroes™ will tap into that fan base.

William Sager, CEO said "We couldn't be more delighted to launch SuperPowerHeroes™. SuperPowerHeroes™ has an enormous devoted and loyal fan base who we know will be pleased with a channel designed exclusively for them - their fans. Some of the biggest movie and TV franchises all feature many of your favorite comic book and costumed heroes. Now there is one channel made just for their fans where they all can be seen 24/7. We felt that there was enough available content and demand to create a standalone channel and with having access to the world's largest library of motion picture previews we believe there is a huge demand for the current content and for this genre of nostalgic content we have and will be creating and presenting on SuperPowerHeroes™."
