"Since the beginning of our activities in 2016, Ocho Sur is an example that formal and highly productive agriculture can coexist harmoniously with biodiversity conservation and inclusive development"

Michael Spoor - CEO

The Leaders noted that the activities carried out by the company are a light of hope for the development of their population and thus they are all willing to work peacefully and jointly with Ocho Sur in productive agricultural projects.

Michael Spoor, CEO of Ocho Sur, was truly honored to be invited to the meeting and said that the company is always ready to work hand in hand with their neighbors to improve their living conditions, caring for the rainforest and the environment, and respecting the culture and traditions of each of the communities existing in the Peruvian jungle.

"Since the beginning of our activities in 2016, Ocho Sur is an example that formal and highly productive agriculture can coexist harmoniously with biodiversity conservation and inclusive development of communities, being the best alternative to fight illegal activities and curb rainforest clearance, a constant, daily threat to the Peruvian Amazon." Spoor added.

About Ocho Sur

Ocho Sur is a leading business group engaged in the sustainable production of palm products and derivatives in Ucayali, Peru. Founded in 2016, Ocho Sur is committed to responsible agricultural and industrial activity that protects the environment, the people and promotes inclusive economic development.
