and inventive words to let children learn to be expressive. It can help them remember the fun sounds and encourage them to invent some of their own.

"We received this book as a gift for our baby shower. I'm so glad we did! It is educational, teaches good values, and is written perfectly for children to understand. Reading is so very important to the growth and development of children. I'm very thankful that I can read a fun story to my daughter that teaches such good standards!" — Barnes & Noble Customer Review.

"Learning about senses is such an adventure for children. This book makes it fun and gives ideas we all can use. There is a website to download the song, follow Bubba Bears adventures, and has great ideas shared by parents and grandparents to make learning even more fun. I can't wait to give this to my great-niece who should be arriving in July and see where Bubba takes her.” — Amazon Customer Review.

Charre Smith is a former public school teacher who taught flute, piano, and voice lessons for twenty-five years.
