PRESS RELEASE | LA BOOK FAIR 2022

Life Worth Living. A literary work composed of poetic memories by the author to her husband, Robert Burns. It included poems about her marriage, family, parents, career, and others. A style of poems like narrative, rhyming, emotional and dramatic reminiscence, and other different styles varied and highlighted in this memoir poetic book.

"This is a moving and beautiful collection of tributes, written with great honesty, self-awareness, and profound sadness, tempered after a while with triumph.

While I don't normally read poetry, I couldn't put this down without finishing it, as it was so engaging and moving." — Daniel Sharp, Former CEO, Professor, Deputy Attorney-General, California.

"A sensitive and personal memoir expressed in poetic cadences that ebb and flow with the author's thoughts. The poet builds her life based on work and relationships, remembering but rising beyond early tragedy." — Joan Macy Kaskell, American Art Historian & Educator.
