Cayuga Centers earns Great Place to Work Certification for the 2022-2023 fiscal year. This award is based on what current employees say about the organization.

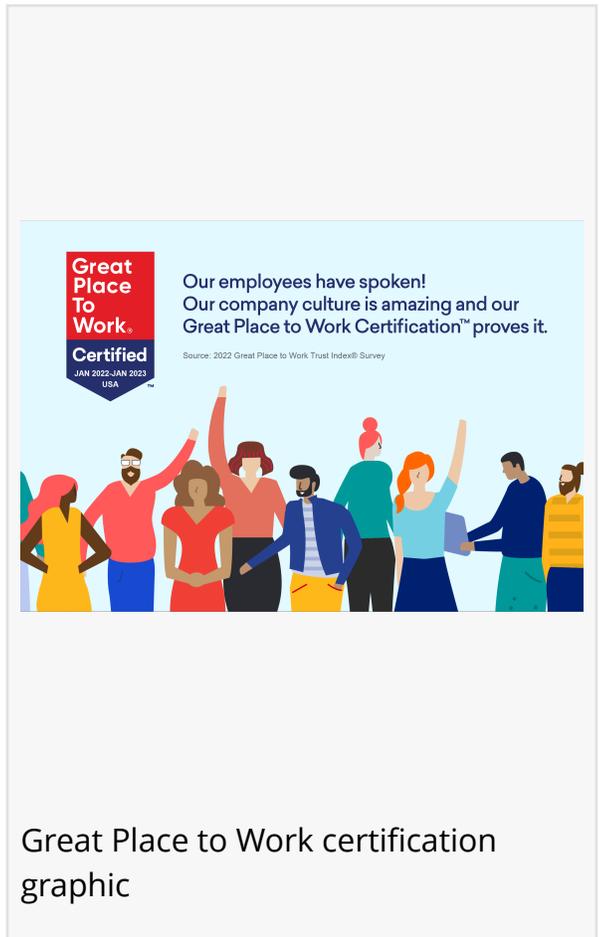

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, KINGS, April 19, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cayuga Centers is proud to be certified as a Great Place to Work for the 2022-2023 fiscal year. The prestigious award recognizes employers based entirely on what current employees say about their experience working at the organization. This year, 61 percent of Cayuga Centers' employees said it's a great place to work. Out of that 61 percent, 88 percent said they feel good about the ways the organization contributes to the community.

Great Place to Work is the global authority on workplace culture, employee experience, and the leadership behaviors proven to deliver market-leading revenue, employee retention, and increased innovation.

"Great Place to Work Certification isn't something that comes easily – it takes ongoing dedication to the employee experience," said Sarah Lewis-Kulin, vice president of global recognition at Great Place to Work. "It's the only official recognition determined by employees' real-time reports of their company culture. Earning this designation means that Cayuga Centers is one of the best companies to work for in the country."

"We are thrilled to become Great Place to Work-Certified as we consider employee experience a top priority every day," says president and CEO, Edward Myers Hayes. "We owe our continued success to our team of dedicated employees at Cayuga Centers. We celebrate and thank them for all they do to earn this incredible recognition."

According to Great Place to Work research, job seekers are 4.5 times more likely to find a great boss at a certified great workplace. Additionally, employees at certified workplaces are 93
