investment portfolio, HBCU Tokens is an evergreen way to put your money where your mouth is. The supporter decides on what level of investment and it gives you the comfort of your funds going to help HBCU's, elevate young black and brown students, insure a greater workforce and elevate society.

Most of America's 103 historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs) have been struggling financially. For years there has been a lack of funding and neglect. Compared to their counterparts, the nation's Black land grant universities have been underfunded by at least $12.8 billion over the last 3 decades. Many are in financial straits — and living under a cloud of violent thread of bombings. Articles share information about no heating cooling units/systems, rustic relic infrastructure, paint peeling off cracked plaster walls, with two thirds of buildings in need of repair, a lack of staff, computers, labs, lack of equipment and supplies, lack of dormitories, etc.

Elon Musk's quote about cryptocurrency, "I could either watch it happen or be a part of it. But wait there's more: the flame thrower is sentient, its safe word is "cryptocurrency" and it comes with a free blockchain." Analysts estimate that the global cryptocurrency market will more than triple by 2030, hitting a valuation of nearly $5 billion. Whether they want to buy into it or not, investors, businesses, and brands can't ignore the rising tide of crypto for long. But crypto can't seem to escape paradoxes anywhere.

"At one point in time, people questioned the relevancy and impact of HBCUs, but this has changed in recent years. There's a lot to celebrate, but there are also ways we can all support our institutions and the most important stakeholders – the students. HBCU 20x20 is proud to be a part of the HBCU Token to further support our impact and the work we do to support our community. As cryptocurrency continues to emerge we're honored to be in this space with HBCU Token, LMarilyn Crawford", Nicole Tinson, CEO of HBCU 20x20.

HOW IT WORKS?

HBCU Token is designed to support the 103 Historically Black Colleges and Universities in US that have historically been a place for African Americans to learn, thrive, and prosper. It continues to serve that purpose for so many who attend. HBCU Token has an in-built 10% fee for each transaction reserved to provide financial assistance across all the black colleges and universities in the United States to help HBCUs achieve their financial and educational goals. The community plans on raising as much as $1,000,000,000 for HBCUs for their financial and educational goals. Help the black community while earning passive income for yourselves through mining the HBCU Token.

"HBCU Tokens give to Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU), institutions of higher education in the United States active and established before the Civil Rights Act of 1964 with the intention of primarily serving the African-American community", said LMarilyn Crawford, HBCU Tokens co-creator. "This allows them to become self sustainable without relying on donors, grants, etc. It gives businesses and everyday citizens an opportunity to support HBCUs, as well as a long term investors. I have lawyers, doctors, teachers, executives, in my family, all who graduated from HBCUs. HBCU TOKENS has been established to invest in the future, substance and quality of HBCU's. By supporting HBCUs, you support minority communities by increasing economic and social mobility through academic and career resources."

HBCU TOKENS provide the investor an opportunity to help with:

- €Sustainability
- €Quality of Education
- €Expansion of Education
- €Growth of an Institution
- €Preparation for the Future Citizens
- *JobForce
- *Entrepreneurs

We have engaged strategic partners, ie HBCU2020 (worlds largest network for HBCU graduates and black job seekers), African American Global Media Association (will handle pr and media), and HBCU entrepreneurs (will offer assistance to start ups & businesses). They will receive funding to support the mission of global citizenship for our graduates. HBCUs have a definite purpose and relevance for our history, culture and purpose in this world. They need society's support and help to sustain, elevate, and grow.

About HBCUs Background

There are 103 HBCUs across the US, enrolling roughly 300,000 plus students. Although HBCUs were originally founded to educate black students, their diversity has increased over time, and are open to people of all color. HBCUs award bachelor's, master's degrees, and doctorates, and have specialized schools in medicine, dentistry, law, and more. HBCUs want to be in a position to compete for the best and educate all.

About HBCU 20x20

HBCU 20x20 is the world's largest network for HBCU and Black job seekers. We relentlessly pursue opportunities for others because when we all work together, any and everything is possible. HBCU2020.org

Born from the idea that students at HBCU (Historically Black Colleges and Universities) deserved the same job opportunities and career resources as those at Ivy League Institutions, the company was founded as a social enterprise in 2017 with the goal of employing 20,000 HBCU students by year 2020.

Since then, we've grown exponentially with a quality over quantity approach to over 25,000 members. Today, we own a tech recruiting platform to share opportunities from our more than 1,000 companies, agencies and organizations signed up within our community. Our HBCU 20X20 Foundation serves students and alumni from 103 HBCUs with professional development resources needed to succeed.
