DEI strategists will participate in a virtual event, on May 19th, presented by Diversity Crew. “The ROI of DEI - The Great Resignation” will provide insight for organizations striving to “Treat People Better” in 2022. There will be interviews from Chief Diversity Officers and practitioners from a multitude of industries.

Eve Mayer, CEO of Diversity Crew, stated, “We are proud to present complimentary DEI education to the public with our free event open to all. We are grateful to our sponsors, Alternative Wealth Partners, Diversity Crew, and Eve Mayer Media.”

Due to the pandemic, and the new realities around job fluctuation and availability, organizations are looking for ways to both combat and embrace the Great Resignation. In this period, companies are investing millions more dollars in DEI training, assessment, and consulting than we’ve ever seen. As we move through the Great Resignation, there is an urgency to learn from where we’ve “not” been. Diversity Crew has gathered some of the brightest minds in DEI to share one brief tip, each, for how an organization can use Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion to overcome or ease the pain of The Great Resignation

Scheduled speakers include:
