The global market is primarily driven by significant growth in the construction industry. Along with this, the increasing investments by public and private agencies for infrastructural development projects and the expansion of commercial and residential spaces are creating a positive outlook for the market. Moreover, the widespread adoption of ready-to-assemble (RTA) flooring solutions is also providing a boost to the market growth. Furthermore, rapid urbanization, the inflating disposable income levels of the masses and their evolving lifestyle preferences have led to the rising preference toward building aesthetically appealing corporate spaces and home interiors, thereby providing an impetus to the market growth. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the decorative laminates market to reach US$ 54.3 Billion by 2027, exhibiting at a CAGR of 4.39% during 2022-2027.
