

DJ Fere Rapidly Becoming Most Sought-After DJ in Dubai

Currently, DJ Fere's schedule is booked well into 2023.

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, April 20, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Wildly renowned DJ, DJ Fere, is taking the Dubai music scene by storm – with a schedule that boasts multiple gigs and shows into the year 2023.

Farhad Jafari, aka DJ Fere, is an Iranian-born professional DJ based in Dubai. He is also the producer of two music-related podcasts called Weekend Lives and MorabiMan on Radio Javan, which is the most popular and prestigious platform for music lovers in Iran. As a well-respected figure in the Iranian music scene, DJ Fere has performed alongside many legendary Iranian singers, including Ebi, Arash, Sogand, and more.

In DJ Fere's recent news, he is announcing his schedule is booked tightly by the best and most famous clubs, events, and wedding parties in Turkey and the UAE – well into 2023. This is a result of the artist's exceptional dedication to his music and to the communities that celebrate his work.

"I take pride in the small, yet inspiring, community that I've gathered together who cares about authenticity and join me every week when I stream live to present them a new mix," says DJ Fere. "I never hesitate to make time for these amazing people – many of whom are active on Instagram, especially Iranian youth living all around the world, but mostly located in Iran and Dubai. The feedback I've received is that many of my fans find my music motivational and listen to it during a workout, due to the intense and inspirational beats I create. It is these beats that have also led me to book gigs far into the future and I look forward to inspire new generations and fans along the way."

DJ Fere's music can be found on regular live streams and several platforms, including Radia Javan, SoundCloud, YouTube, and Spotify, just to name a few.
