Cathy Trinh

She is on her way to that goal. In June, on behalf of Asian women around the world, Cathy will accept a public acknowledgment of the contribution of Asian women during the Vietnam War. The acknowledgment will take place at a news conference in Atlanta involving a coalition of cultural leaders. Georgia Gubernatorial Candidate Elbert "Al" Bartell, a Vietnam-era Air Force veteran, will deliver the acknowledgment. "I am moved beyond words by this honor," Cathy says.

Having fled Vietnam with her parents when she was only a toddler, having survived cancer, having overcome challenges throughout her career, Cathy is a model of resilience and courage, and the perfect choice to receive the acknowledgment.
