

and civil servants were from West Pakistan. The West Pakistanis were exploiting and oppressing the East Pakistanis for 23 years. Bangladesh people revolted and engaged in a nine-month-long bloody armed fight of the Liberation War in 1971. During the liberation war in 1971, the Pakistani armed forces committed crimes against humanity and violated the all human and civil rights of the people of East Pakistan. The oppressive Pakistani occupation forces committed genocides and massacres through mass killings of more than 3 million innocent people and coercively raping more than 400,000 innocent girls and women. The Pakistanis tortured the East Pakistani who are now the Bengalis inhumanly, severely, brutally in planned ways."

Dr. Mohsin Ali , Author

Published by Book Vine Press, Dr. Ali's new book clearly unleashes the crimes of the Pakistanis that continued to spread over the entire country in all the cities, towns, neighborhoods, and villages for nine months until they surrendered to the Bangladesh liberation allied Indian forces.
