The global market is primarily driven by significant growth in the food and beverage sector. Coupled with the shifting dietary preferences of the masses and their inflating disposable income levels, there has been a considerable rise in the demand for bottled beverages, which is providing a boost to the uptake of PET bottles across the globe. Additionally, rapid technological advancements on the global level have also created a positive outlook for the market. This has led to the introduction of PET bottles with customized shapes and plasma-based coatings, which are gaining widespread popularity among the masses. Looking forward, IMARC Group expects the pet bottle market to reach US$ 52 Billion by 2027, exhibiting at a CAGR of 4.46% during 2022-2027.
