ABOUT

Natalie Nichole was raised in San Antonio. Natalie has been performing ever since she can remember. At a very young age, she was involved with dancing groups, talent shows, TV Shows, Commercials, and youth organizations such as NYA and HYPE. With NYA (Network for Young Artists), she gained experience throughout San Antonio, TX performing at local rodeos and festivals. Natalie then moved to California for two years after High School and rubbed elbows in the studio with the likes of Smitty Soul (Credits: Chris Brown, Ariana Grande, Nicki Minaj etc.), Ron Aniello (Credits: EMPIRE, Bruce Springsteen, Shania Twain.), Pusha Rod (Credits: YG, Dreezy.), Rita Wilson and gained even more experience in songwriting in sessions for artists like Disney Star CoCo Jones. Natalie became homeless for 11 months while living in California but that didn't stop her from continuing to work, becoming an extra for more money & pursuing her dreams. During this same time Natalie auditioned for Nick Cannon's #SignMeToNCredible Challenge via Instagram & WON! Natalie has been apart of Nick Cannon's Projects Titled "Calling All Models (The Prequel)", "Waiting for your call" & The "Fuck Him Trilogy" that released early 2018, and also released a single titled "Simple" with NCredible Ent in 2019. Natalie created her own Independent label "Indience Music Group" shortly after working with Nick Cannon when she realized she could cause her own buzz, revenue and own 100% of herself. Through her label she's released iTunes chart topping singles like "Slide" & "Go Off" along with so many other high streaming records. Natalie's discography keeps flourishing and she would like her legacy to be for her storytelling/testimony because she pulls from her own life experiences to create and help others in all things she does.
