LONDON, GREATER LONDON, ENGLAND, April 25, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- We are thrilled to announce that CryptoXpress customers can now deposit and withdraw Pound Sterling (GBP) and Euros (EUR) directly in and out of their CryptoXpress accounts via FPS and SEPA bank wire transfers in the UK and EU. We appreciate your patience as the team worked hard to make this come to life. Check it out in the CryptoXpress app!

This was made possible through our partnership with Modulr Finance, a leader in the payments industry that offers Payments-as-a-Service which automates payment flows, embeds payments in other platforms and enables customers to launch entirely new services.

What this means for CryptoXpress users is that they can now invest in 1000+ cryptocurrency pairs, NFTs, and many other digital assets and services

Fiat has arrived in the CryptoXpress app.

Deposit and withdraw fiat via FPS and SEPA.

in the future, simply by making a simple transfer from their personal banking account.

This new feature will bring CryptoXpress one step closer to achieving our mission of bridging the gap between crypto, finance, and payments. And eventually becoming the de facto crypto-wallet solution of the future.

This huge integration comes off the back of key strategic integration partnerships such as with Binance. Through their Binance Broker Program, CryptoXpress can offer top-notch order matching services, account management, and settlement systems. Furthermore, CryptoXpress is leveraging Binance's leading liquidity, market depth, asset management systems, security infrastructure, and personalized marketing support, focusing on delivering maximum value to users.

On the NFT side, CryptoXpress offers cross-chain NFTs through our partnership with Polygon (previously known as Matic), a framework for developing and joining Ethereum-compatible networks of blockchain. This means the NFTs minted, listed, and traded on the CryptoXpress app are compatible with ERC20/BSC/Matic blockchains with fast transaction times and low transaction fees. Also, this allows users to seamlessly transfer NFTs to and from other platforms.

Ultimately, this fiat integration brings us one step closer to CryptoXpress offering personalized UK and EU accounts, to all eligible customers, later in the year.
