

Changing Planes at 14,000ft, The World-First Plane Swap Live on Insight TV

Professional Skydivers Luke Aikins and Andy Farrington Will Attempt the Swap Planes Mid-Air on Insight TV for A Physics-Defying Feat, Ten Years in the Making.

AMSTERDAM, HOLLAND, NETHERLANDS, April 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Insight TV, worldwide leader of Millennial and Gen-Z focused 4K HDR content, is excited to announce that the world-first Plane Swap will be shown on Insight TV on April 25th from 01:00 AM CEST.

Red Bull athletes Luke Aikins and Andy Farrington will jump out of two planes nose-diving toward the ground, skydiving in tandem into each other's planes before regaining control and performing a safe landing, all in under a minute. The never-before-seen feat will be available to view on Insight TV across Europe, the Middle East, and Asia.

The feat will be the first time in aviation history that a pilot will take off in one plane, and land in another. Both planes have been re-engineered to enter a controlled nose dive, with enough time for the two pilots, Luke Aikins and Andy Farrington to swap planes.

Viewers across Europe, the Middle East and Asia can see the action live above the Arizona skies, with replays available on the Insight TV platform-watch.insight.tv
